I wish to express my thanks for the participants at ANBD 2011 exhibitions at the 4 areas opening in Asia. An understanding to a process which is mutually different will be needed in order to resuscitate a genre freshly. Therefore, the mutual exchange beyond the frame of each genre is required. Today, technologies are developing with rapidly and will spread to all the countries of the world. On the other hand, various types of contradictions will arise by losing the identity between the technologies and humans, or between technologies and the cultural individual styles.

I believe that creation is an activity towards solving these contradictions. It is then important to be conscious of these contradictions which will arise in each region or each country. In solving these problems, the creative works of the designers will contribute to the regional each identity.

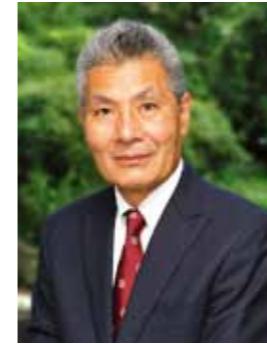

The reason why I wish to consider regionality on the level of creation is that regionality is not the only source of creative energy but one of the factors which contributes towards creation.

By this way, the identity of Asia serves towards a crystal. It is still taking time for a lot of genre of art, design and science profession as a whole feel comfortable with this new and ever-improving digital network technology. As awareness of the new network continues to disseminate, the more artists, designers and scientists will learn to incorporate the digital network in their practice without being unsettled by the distance.

If this exhibition becomes a point of departure for the gradual deepening and clarification of the presentations raised here, then our highest wishes will be more than thought.

Akira Harada

President, Association of Asia Network Beyond Design
President, Sapporo City University

ASIA NETWORK BEYOND DESIGN: ANBD and Beyond

Let us recall the central keyword of the Third ANBD Exhibition – Platform. This keyword clearly evokes all that we have shared for centuries. Trains with artists on board from far flung regions and countries across Asia arrive at the station platform bearing precious works of art. How wondrous are these artists of long ago who created and exchanged different styles of art and ideas, full of nostalgia and romance, but how hazardous their journeys were. Now thanks to new digital technology, we send our creations out into the world in a matter of seconds, while in olden days, no doubt, a countless number of works of art must have been lost and sunk to the bottom of the ocean.

This year, "Art for the creation of life" is the central theme of the Fourth ANBD Exhibition. I hope that this theme takes us further towards reaching the overall goal of our project by integrating our forbears' and neighbors' ever-continuing enthusiasm for art into the messages in our present works of art. This year's exhibition plays an important role as the artistic site where we express the messages from deep within ourselves through the works themselves.

To this end, we have endeavored to bring all of our knowledge and intellectual abilities together to create an artistic space wherein we can exchange our artistic messages with other artists across the borders. We have taken this precious opportunity to produce a space which brings people together, a place full of life – an open café – where all fill their glasses and raise them in a toast to the world of art, and the messages of the artists. Standing on our “platform,” we send instant digital messages BEYOND the borders, but they are indeed instilled with our hopes and wishes like those we write on an ema at a shrine or on a Star Festival tanzaku.

In working individually on our creations and exhibiting them, we feel the sense of mission that has been given to us by the ANBD and know that we must try to fulfill it with all the wisdom and intelligence we have at hand.

The Tamagawa University student committee, although quite new to the challenge of planning and producing the ANBD, has brilliantly transformed the whole exhibition hall into an open café. I am proud of them and have only praise for their creativity. It is my sincere hope that their vital unifying force sends out a strong message to the world and to all those who have been forced to start anew in these difficult times following the disastrous events of March 11th.
