Opening Address

I would like to extend my regards and gratitude to the enthusiasm and courage of many participants and the staff members of and artists and designers in 4 regions (Seoul, Tianjin, Taipei and Tokyo).

1st Asia Network Beyond Design (ANBD) Exhibition since it was held in Sapporo in 2008, celebrates its seventh anniversary in 2014 this year.

These exhibitions have been held in four regions of Asia. We have held 28 times exhibitions in four regions during this time.

The goal of the ANBD is to promote a meaningful exchange beyond the various genres through network, and it will be formed as the identity of Asia.

Asian soul is found in the form of graphics, information and objects. The representations of Gods or cosmos also show our traditional Asian soul.

ANBD2014 is going to challenge, on the common theme of "Asian Soul in Form", to visualize Asian spirit in every kind of embodied forms.

I want to build relationships through the exchange of expression of the soul of Asia that is based on a common theme, such as the soul of Asia. Only through human interaction like this, smooth relationship with the world will be realized.

We hope the success of this exhibition along with everyone.

It is a great honor for Tokyo Polytechnic University Nakano Campus to be selected to hold the Asia Network Beyond Design (ANBD) 2014.

Tokyo Polytechnic University was founded 90 years ago as Konishi Professional School of Photography, which was the first school in Japan that specialized in the study of photography. Since its founding it has strived to develop media art visionaries.

The engineering department pursues the technology of images, while the art department pursues the expression of images. Beginning this year the Art Department will be concentrating 7 courses in the Nakano campus: photography, movies, design, interactive media, animation, games and manga, thereby moving forward with the effort to have a major foothold in media art. Numerous exchange students from Asia are studying at the new campus. It would be no exaggeration to say that ANBD policies have in fact expanded the education scene. As globalization continues, using this as an opportunity to further deepen the awareness of Far-East Asians, this event will be broadcast far and wide to expand the goals of ANBD and we will continue to work hard so that many people can experience it.

Shin'ichiro Wakao

President, Tokyo Polytechnic University

Akira Harada
President, Association of Asia Network Beyond Design
Emeritus Professor, Sapporo City University

First of all, I would like to offer my heartfelt congratulations on the Asia Network Beyond Design (ANBD) 2014 exhibition.

While I am originally Asian, it was when I became a university student that I first realized the greatness of the thought that flows through Asia. In addition, I went to an art museum in New York during spring break when I became a graduate student and there I was able to experience Japanese works of art, which made me realize the greatness of Japanese people all over again. I had grown up being Americanized without even knowing about it, and from that I had an interest in the shape of culture, which was the expression of the Asian mind and way of thinking. I began to think the state of the Asian spirit is very important precisely because we are currently in the midst of a globalized world. That is why I was very sympathetic when I learned of the spirit of ANBD. I feel exceptionally pleased that Tokyo Polytechnic University is able to hold an event that embodies this spirit.

I hope many people are able to experience this event and that it will contribute to the creation of a new network in Asia.
