In 8th ANBD2015 exhibition, we have a common theme of "Sky, Land, Wind, Thing".

Before designing and making artworks, please think how to solve the relationship between human and this theme, "Sky, Land, Wind, Thing". This theme to explore, serve to human environment formation of our Esthetic consciousness, it has a great significance for the people who live in this world.

Through the platform of representation on the identity in 4 areas, we are sure to be able to generate new creative view. I sincerely hope to be a great success of this exhibition.

Akira Harada

President, Association of Asia Network Beyond Design
Emeritus Professor, Sapporo City University

We at Tokyo Polytechnic University are honored to be able to host "ANBD(Asia Network Beyond Design) 2015."

Tokyo Polytechnic University's strength has been its curiosity and adventurous spirit, to put it briefly. 92 years ago, when Konishi Professional School of Photography, the predecessor of Tokyo Polytechnic University, was established, photography was a new medium that wielded the leading technology of that age. The ambition of promptly tackling such new technology has been passed on through the generations, leading us to nurture future-minded talent full of challenging spirit.

Today, our Faculty of Arts is made up of the Departments of Photography, Imaging Art, Design, Interactive Media, Animation, Manga, and Game. We aim to become the forefront source of media art, which Japan takes pride in, for not only our nation but also the world. We consider our Nakano campus, where the Faculty of Arts is located, to take the position as a major center of media art, and will increase our efforts to produce "new concepts that contribute to the richness of humanity."

Especially in recent years, holding an event like ANBD is of great value, and particularly at our school where numbers of foreign students from Asia are surging. We will continue to exert ourselves in communicating the significance of this exhibition.

Shin'ichiro Wakao

President, Tokyo Polytechnic University

I would like to offer my sincere congratulations for the holding of "ANBD (Asia Network Beyond Design) 2015." We are truly honored to be able to host this event at our university, two years in a row.

The philosophy that has always existed throughout the Orient is one of deep affinity, and I imagine it will bring upon great positive impact to the future human race as globalization increasingly ensues.

The recent unrest that I sense concerning international situations within parts of Asia is saddening. It is in times such as these that we Asian nations must come together, hand in hand, to produce wisdom for humanity. It is such effort that would shed new light upon the value of ANBD's existence, and I strongly feel that we must become such a presence.

By all means, my hope is for many people to take a look at our efforts. I ardently wish for the spirit of ANBD to spread to as many individuals as possible.

Hiroki Taniguchi

Head of the Department of Design
Faculty of Arts
Tokyo Polytechnic University
