In 8th ANBD2015 exhibition, we have a common theme of "Sky, Land, Wind, Thing".

Before designing and making artworks, please think how to solve the relationship between human and this theme, "Sky, Land, Wind, Thing". This theme to explore, serve to human environment formation of our Esthetic consciousness, it has a great significance for the people who live in this world.

Through the platform of representation on the identity in 4 areas, we are sure to be able to generate new creative view. I sincerely hope to be a great success of this exhibition.

Akira Harada

President, Association of Asia Network Beyond Design
Emeritus professor, Sapporo City University

Asia Network Beyond Design (ANBD) has been building a network encompassing various fields and disciplines since 2007 and has already held 8 exhibitions. Thanks to the accomplishments of the visionary organizers, these exhibitions have proven to be a great success. Now, in the year 2015, I believe ANBD is ready to make a quantum leap which will open a new era of cooperation, built upon past experience and continued efforts.

By combining Universe, Earth, Environment (Culture), and Material into one exhibition, they are ready to give us a glimpse of what our future might look like; how to make it possible to surround ourselves in a truly sustainable ecosystem. This effort requires the knowledge and understanding of the law of physics, our planet earth, the Ecosystem, various natural resources, weather systems, culture, energy, natural and artificial structures, the human body, the diversity of our biosphere, and finally encompassing all of the above – the complex and beautiful relationship between humans and nature.

This is a tremendous step towards providing a roadmap for our future. It is time for us to converge our knowledge in various fields to make our world a better place to live in. Even though ANBD's efforts were initially begun by artists, these efforts should now encompass natural sciences, social sciences, and religion to provide a more robust, clear picture of our sustainable future for the human race as a whole.

Again, my great appreciation goes to the people who have been organizing all these exhibitions with great vision and devotion, and the artists who participate in this most valuable adventure.

Sei K. Park

CEO
Superbrands Korea

I'm very glad to prepare and participate in the grand opening of Asia Network beyond Design 2015 Seoul exhibition.

I know that ANBD exhibition has dealt with very valuable issues for over seven years. Furthermore, this year's theme of 'Sky, Land, Wind and Things' reflects that people forget about what's important in life.

In the highest civilization, the nature is still the highest delight and human is the noblest of all creatures in the world. We could not find our own values and depict vividly the scenes and manners of Asia until we come close to nature and surroundings that we live. We can look back over the objective of ANBD's organization through this exhibition.

And I hope that this year's exhibition, especially, should be the driving force of expanding the Asia Networks as well as ensuring the values of Asia by way of watching where we are.

It is certain that the continuous efforts of ANBD's will make contribution to Asian cultural development. Congratulations to ANBD 2015 again.

Jeehyun Kim

Representative of ANBD Seoul
Professor, Hansung University
